

Shin, a Japanese Vampire

A Japanese Vampire Born at the End of an Age In feudal Japan a poor peasant & family man is turned to a vampire by mistake. He must come to grips with his new reality & help his family to survive. In the world of the Samurai he encounters creatures from Japanese mythology some helpful, others deadly. The yakuza, the supernatural, and the unrelenting thirst for blood shape his destiny. Follow his adventures down through the centuries culminating with clashes in modern day Tokyo. Shin, a Japanese Vampire is an unusual & compelling mixture of supernatural action-adventure and historical fiction that reveals the transformative and corrupting journey a simple man must take and how to lose, or regain, the essence of humanity. As one review puts it: Shogun meets Steven King. 170 pages in normal book (trade paperback) format. July 4 2013 revision = grammatical errors corrected. About the Author: Kent Willis has spent nearly six years in Japan, first in her rural mountains as a young man, then decades later in the heart of Tokyo as a businessman. He studied Japanese language and Asian culture at Northwestern University. The author works as an attorney and lives with his family in the forests of Connecticut.

She has an interest in the environment and passionate about the community and how we are living on this planet. Sitting on the board of "Living Green" and the steering committee of "Transition Barrie, she is well advised about the concerns and problems facing residents. "I believe that I can bring a lot to the table in terms of our experience in the Barrie and surrounding area Real Estate market, our knowledge of the Community and our study of the Environment." An award winning Realtor and "Hall of Fame" award of excellence. "I will only take on the new business that I can handle" "I am not interested in stock piling listings with the hopes that, by the law of averages, some will sell." Karen is hard working, dedicated and determined to provide the best possible service to her clients and customers. Why use a "Green Realtor" There are already signs that in the near future energy costs will continue to rise. When shopping for a new home, it is imperative that buyers compare homes based on the normal criteria of location, size and functionality along with the homes potential for energy efficiency by concentrating on insulation, type of windows, furnace, roof, age of the structure, type of wiring, type of plumbing, lot grading and the potential to grow your own food should you desire. We can make this process easier for you with our knowledge of the area builders over a long period of time and our training on efficiency and energy efficient products. We can point out periods of rapid growth when homes in our city were not well constructed and were rendered very poor on the scale of energy efficiency. We can point out builders that meet LEED standards or Green standards and have built to the highest levels of efficiency. Quick Search Search Featured Property RE/MAX Chay Realty Inc.
