

Knitting from Home: How to Start Your Own Cottage Industry

Cottage Industry Definition by Merriam-Webster 1) an industry whose labor force consists of family units or individuals working at home with their own equipment 2) a small and often informally organized industry 3) a limited but enthusiastically pursued activity or subject

Do you love to knit? Do people consistently compliment your finished products? Are you interested in making extra household income? Starting your own cottage industry might be right for you! Let me help you learn all of basics (and advantages and pitfalls!) of starting a cottage industry right in your own home. In this book I will share my experiences with you, and provide guidance so that you can make an educated decision as to whether this opportunity will work for you. Not only will you receive tried and true advice on finding (and keeping!) clients, how to set your pricing, and staying motivated when youre feeling overwhelmed, but you will also have access to all of the forms you will need for your new business: invoices, contracts, proposals, feedback postcards, inventory sheets, and price listings. My husband and I left the hustle and bustle of a hectic life in central New Jersey for the country life in scenic Upstate New York. We bravely ventured into the fiber world, raising alpacas and angora rabbits on our small hobby farm. I worked in the medical field as an administrator my entire career, and used the knitting skills I learned to love as a child to help me relax. In addition, I taught knitting classes for over three decades, both privately and formally. When some extra household income was needed in our new life, it just made common sense to use what I know and develop a successful, home-based knitting business! Will this venture make you rich? No, but it will certainly bring in a steady income. As you know, knitting is a time-consuming art, but it is treasured and respected by those who still want hand-crafted goods. It is an ideal way for you to supplement your family earnings while watching TV, talking on the phone, queuing up in lines, and attending your children's sport games. There is plenty of work out there for knitters, and I am honored to share what I have learned through my own trial and error to help you develop your own successful at-home business.

She has an interest in the environment and passionate about the community and how we are living on this planet. Sitting on the board of "Living Green" and the steering committee of "Transition Barrie," she is well advised about the concerns and problems facing residents. "I believe that I can bring a lot to the table in terms of our experience in the Barrie and surrounding area Real Estate market, our knowledge of the Community and our study of the Environment." An award winning Realtor and "Hall of Fame" award of excellence. "I will only take on the new business that I can handle" "I am not interested in stock piling listings with the hopes that, by the law of averages, some will sell." Karen is hard working, dedicated and determined to provide the best possible service to her clients and customers. Why use a "Green Realtor"? There are already signs that in the near future energy costs will continue to rise. When shopping for a new home, it is imperative that buyers compare homes based on the normal criteria of location, size and functionality along with the homes potential for energy efficiency by concentrating on insulation, type of windows, furnace, roof, age of the structure, type of wiring, type of plumbing, lot grading and the potential to grow your own food should you desire. We can make this process easier for you with our knowledge of the area builders over a long period of time and our training on efficiency and energy efficient products. We can point out periods of rapid growth when homes in our city were not well constructed and were rendered very poor on the scale of energy efficiency. We can point out builders that meet LEED standards or Green standards and have built to the highest levels of efficiency. Quick Search Search Featured Property RE/MAX Chay Realty Inc.
