

THE MISSION: Book 2 (Deus ex Machina 1)

Cas Kasabian was born one billion years in the future, just as planet Earth was about to be burned to a crisp by an unstable, expanding sun. Aged 4, he was one of the lucky few chosen to travel back to the dawn of time to be part of a new colony along with 5000 other young children, 50 highly-trained adults and a super-computer called Minerva. But after someone sabotaged the time ship they were travelling on, he's now stranded in The Mission, a mediaeval monastery, along with thousands of other refugees from the future. For now, all that 14 year-old Cas dreams of is going out with the gorgeous Ava and being allowed to roam freely through The Missions mysterious time tunnels. But life for Cas is not that simple. When he's not having nightmares about the war with The Trappers, he's trying to keep one step ahead of crazy instructor Brutus, dead-eyed chronoids and the monsters lurking in his imagination. The situation isn't helped by the fact that his best friend Loki is the biggest troublemaker in the time-space continuum. Book 2 of The Mission continues to follow Cas and his bid to become a tunnel rat. As his end of term Review approaches, the big question is whether his determination to succeed will overcome the many obstacles and distractions in his way. The biggest distraction of all is Ava, the girl he has loved since the first time he saw her. Ava though has other things on her mind than Cas. Cas' desire to be a tunnel rat and his love of Ava are matched only by his loyalty to The Mission. But he has started to notice tensions that bubble just beneath the smooth-seeming surface of The Mission. Surrounded by killer robots, an all-seeing supercomputer, semi-psychotic scientists and a dozen shades of emotionally-unhinged time travellers, it's not that easy for a young boy to know who to trust anymore. Publishers Note: Book 2 of The Mission is a 25,000 word novella.

Altogether, The Mission will be published in 36 parts and weigh in at around 800,000 words. It is the first work in a cycle that is designed to run to 4 or 5 volumes.
