

Home Remodeling - What You Dont Know and How It Really Works

Are you considering a home remodeling project? Are you worried about how it will turn out? Does thinking about the project keep you up at night? Have you ever wondered how home remodeling really works? What happens behind the scenes? You're right to be concerned. The world of home remodeling can be confusing and stressful. The great news is that you can have a successful home remodeling project! Armed with the right information, you can have a project that is on-time, on-budget and low stress. The secret to a good remodeling project is to know how remodeling really works. There are unwritten rules, government regulations and challenging personalities that determine the success of any remodeling project. Until now, the only way you could learn those rules was to suffer through your own remodeling project, applying those hard-won lessons to your second project. We've interviewed homeowners, contractors, architects, and designers to learn from their experiences and have distilled the most useful information into this book. You'll learn: - The three causes of stress in a home remodeling project and how to manage them. - Why home remodeling is a very emotional process. - How to make the decision on whether or not to remodel. - What to expect when getting your building permit. - Why paying attention to the design phase of your project is critical for success. - How to choose the right contractor. - What to look for in your remodeling contract. And that's just the beginning!

Why use a • Green Realtor • There are already signs that in the near future energy costs will continue to rise. When shopping for a new home, it is imperative that buyers compare homes based on the normal criteria of location, size and functionality along with the homes potential for energy efficiency by concentrating on insulation, type of windows, furnace, roof, age of the structure, type of wiring, type of plumbing, lot grading and the potential to grow your own food should you desire. We can make this process easier for you with our knowledge of the area builders over a long period of time and our training on efficiency and energy efficient products. We can point out periods of rapid growth when homes in our city were not well constructed and were rendered very poor on the scale of energy efficiency. We can point out builders that meet LEED standards or Green standards and have built to the highest levels of efficiency. Quick Search Search Featured Property RE/MAX Chay Realty Inc.
