

The Clutter Bugs Emergency Handbook, The Incredibly Simple, Yet Surprisingly Surefire Solution to a Messy Problem (The Dream Desk Questionnaire)

Life has always contained some distractions, but they used to be the fun things, a show with some dancing and music, a bit of cash placed on a game of chance. Fun is important because it gives us relief from the daily pressures of life. But today the market exposes people to a thousand advertisements daily, round the clock entertainment, and news and messages are swamping the boundaries of daily life. Its increasingly hard to separate between what matters and the fluff stuffed along the edges. Getting rid of distracting clutter matters because it helps you focus on what is important to you. Whats that? Having love in your life, work you enjoy, good health and hope for the future! While seeing the next installment of a favorite TV show is fun, is it important? Here is scale to measure that: Something is important when it contributes to your long-term happiness and well being, supporting your sense of purpose! This chaos affects everyone in our modern society and here is an obvious symptom; since the 1980s increasing numbers of personal storage companies have crept into marginal land to help people and businesses store their extra stuff. The only way many people can escape debilitating clutter is by jamming it into those paid closets. How important can that stuff be if they can forget about it for months, or even years at a time while it sucks money out of their bank accounts? The purpose of this approach is to help you focus on the essentials that will bring you joy, satisfaction and hope for the future, while dispelling the distracting fluff. We will reveal how simple environmental design flaws disrupt your lifes focus, and then provide very effective techniques to fix that. We are covering the most powerful methods in the first two chapters, so that even if you run out of time to read the rest, you will have what you need to succeed. Following that will be a more rounded understanding of how this system works, with some refinements that can help you attain your long term goals and apply this in group spaces, both at home and at work. When you use these tools, be prepared to get over your stress, ill health and clutter, just to name a few of the symptoms that chronic distractions inflict on modern people. About the Authors: Drs. She has an interest in the environment and passionate about the community and how we are living on this planet. Sitting on the board of "Living Green" and the steering committee of "Transition Barrie", she is well advised about the concerns and problems facing residents. "I believe that I can bring a lot to the table in terms of our experience in the Barrie and surrounding area Real Estate market, our knowledge of the Community and our study of the Environment." An award winning Realtor and "Hall of Fame" award of excellence. "I will only take on the new business that I can handle" "I am not interested in stock piling listings with the hopes that, by the law of averages, some will sell." Karen is hard working, dedicated and determined to provide the best possible service to her clients and customers. Why use a "Green Realtor"? There are already signs that in the near future energy costs will continue to rise. When shopping for a new home, it is imperative that buyers compare homes based on the normal criteria of location, size and functionality along with the homes potential for energy efficiency by concentrating on insulation, type of windows, furnace, roof, age of the structure, type of wiring, type of plumbing, lot grading and the potential to grow your own food should you desire. We can make this process easier for you with our knowledge of the area builders over a long period of time and our training on efficiency and energy efficient products. We can point out periods of rapid growth when homes in our city were not well constructed and were rendered very poor on the scale of energy efficiency. We can point out builders that meet LEED standards or Green standards and have built to the highest levels of efficiency. Quick Search Search Featured Property RE/MAX Chay Realty Inc. Brokerage
